

Hola chic@s!!

Esta semana nos lanzamos a revisar cómo se forma el plural de los nombres.

Fijaros bien en el video, porque luego hay que completar una worksheet ("Plurals").

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ElyzuIrMXkI>

Os dejo también el enlace a un video en el que recordaremos cuando usar el presente simple (I read a book everyday) y cuando el presente continuo (I am reading a book now)

Para poder repasar os dejo unas flashcards con Daily Routines y una worksheet ("The Woolly Jumper").

<https://learnenglishkids.britishcouncil.org/grammar-videos/the-woolly-jumper>

Si no podemos imprimir, trabajaremos en la libreta. Me encantan vuestros dibujos, pero no olvidéis anotar la fecha y el título de la ficha en la que trabajáis

The woolly jumper

Present simple and present continuous

KITTY: Gran, what are you doing?

GRAN: I'm knitting a jumper.

KITTY: I'm knitting? Why don't you say 'I knit'? That's the present tense in English.

GRAN: Because there are two present tenses in English and when we're talking about things we're doing right now we use the present continuous. You try. What are you doing now?

KITTY: Well, I'm sitting on the sofa, I'm talking to you and I'm watching you knit.

GRAN: Good!

KITTY: So when do we use the present simple?

GRAN: Well, for things we do every day, every week or every month. Tell me what you do every morning.

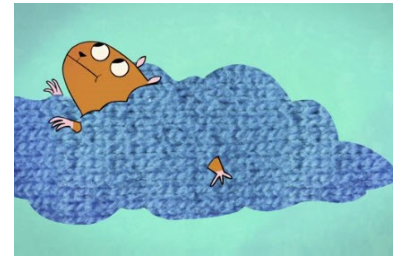

KITTY: I wake up, I get dressed, I eat breakfast, I brush my teeth, I feed Hero the hamster and then I go to school.

GRAN: Well done! Oh, I remember when I was a girl ... Hey, you're not listening!

KITTY: Look, Gran. Hero's playing with your knitting!

GRAN: Oh no! What a mess!
